1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with attorney Jonathan M. Harris (reg. No. 44,144) on 12/20/2005.

The following changes have been made to the subject application:

Claim 1:

Line 11, "a first receiving means" has been changed to --the first receiving means--;

Line 17, ", and the one of the at least" has been changed to --circuit--;

Lines 18-19 has been deleted.

Claim 12:

Line 4, "a second current to" has been deleted;

Line 14, after "comparator", --for biasing the D flip-flop circuit-- has been inserted.

The Examiner's amendment has been made in order to comply with the 35USC 112, second paragraph and to place the application in a condition for allowance.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the amendment filed 12/14/2005 and telephonic interview on 12/20/2005 have overcome the technical deficiencies and the prior art of record. The prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest a current comparator having a current comparator input terminal connected to the summing node, wherein the current comparator is coupled to the second receiving means for comparing the summed current with the second current to thereby select one of the first current and the second current as an output current for biasing the D flip-flop as called in claim 1, summing the first current and the second current to produce a summed current at a summing node, comparing the summed current with second current by a current comparator, selecting one of the first and second current as an output current by the current comparator for biasing the D flip flop circuit in response to the summed current and the second current being compared as called for in claim 12. Therefore, claims 1-20 are presently allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
